

MARION J. AND ALICE W. DOUSE

Two of the ten founding members of Anderson

Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church and anchors in the community for over fifty years. Mr. Douse is a retiree of the U.S. Army and a Trustee Emeritus of the church. The late Mrs. Douse, a Steward Emeritus, had the distinction of being the first African-American female principal in the Killeen Independent School District. By always seeking to exemplify positive and productive lives, they touched and encouraged people of all ages. As faithful and committed laborers in service at Anderson Chapel A.M.E. Church, they desired to see the "Marion J. and Alice W. Douse Community Center" (DCC) become an invaluable asset to the church and community.

DOUSE COMMUNITY CENTER

In 2004, a center was envisioned where Anderson Chapel would increase its impact upon the Marlboro Heights community and the city of Killeen. A place where the community could come and find instruction, fellowship, interaction and community-building. The vision was for a place where children and youth would share in drama and music productions. A place where the congregation would have a place to grow through increased technological and audio-visual capabilities. Ten years later that God-breathed vision became a reality. The words of the ancient prophet are ringing true...this vision is for a future time. It describes the end, and it will be fulfilled. If it seems slow in coming, wait patiently, for it will surely take place. It will not be delayed Habakkuk 2:3
